

EUROPEAN SOCIOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION
1997 CONFERENCE
University of Essex - Colchester - GB - August 27-30

CALL FOR PAPERS

In the framework of the ESA 1997 Conference on the general subject Inclusion/Exclusion, several sessions will be organised on the theme:

"Generational contracts and conflicts"

Papers to be presented could deal with one of the following topics:

- The welfare state and equity between generations
- Generational transfers and their contribution to the process of Inclusion/Exclusion
- Changing generational structure and relations in the family
- Changing values from one generation to another
- Evolution of intergenerational relations, involving new qualities, new conflicts

All those interested in presenting a paper should send their proposal, with a brief description of the contents, by 28 February 1997, to either of the co-convenors of the sessions:

Dr. Claudine Attias-Donfut
CNAV
49 rue Mirabeau
75016 PARIS (France)
Fax. : (33.1.) 53.92.50.26

Prof. Sara Arber
Department of Sociology
University of Surrey
GU2 5XH GUILDFORD (United Kingdom)
Fax : (44.1) 483.306.290

A copy of the abstract should also be sent to the Conference Organisers at Essex (Sociology Department, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester CO4 3SQ)

Should the number of replies exceed the capacity of our working sessions, a selection will be made based on the following criterias: date of entry - suitability of the topics - representation of a variety of approaches.

Papers which seem better suited to other working groups will be forwarded to their convenors.
